An overview of invasion wave-fronts in reaction-diffusion equations

Louis Garénaux, KIT

Abstract

Invasion wave-fronts are a very important structure to model biological phenomena. Their mathematical study was initiated in 1937 for reaction-diffusion equations, and seems to currently develop along other interesting directions. In this presentation, I will mainly focus on a stability result for the critical FKPP wave-front.